

SOUTH AFRICA VOTED... NOW WHAT?

What does this mean for decision makers and risk professionals as the political landscape evolves?

WANDERERS CLUB, JHB

14 AUGUST 2019 | PROGRAMME

Session	Topic	Speakers
08.00 – 08:10	Setting the Scene Welcome and setting the scene for the morning.	Gillian le Cordeur Chief Executive Officer The Institute of Risk Management South Africa
08:10 – 09:30	The Rise or Fall of South Africa in the 2020s What are the key driving forces that are shaping South Africa today? Enabling decision-making to anticipate short, medium and long term shifts in the business environment. Some of the important questions that will be discussed: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Can South Africa stage an economic recovery? • Can Cyril Ramaphosa survive in the ANC? • What are the implications of the fiscal squeeze on for government policy? • What are the likely outcome of the expropriation without compensation (EWC) policy process? • Whether or not social and economic tensions can significantly destabilise South Africa? • How will long-term voting, economic and stability trends unfold? 	David Ansara Chief Operating Officer Centre for Risk Analysis

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> What role will external players such as the International Monetary Fund (IMF) and China play in shaping South Africa's future policy environment?
09:30 – 09:40	Risk Insight How does my organisation use this information to make an impact? A few tips to take back with you at the end of the day.	Christopher Palm, Chief Risk Advisor The Institute of Risk Management South Africa
09:30 – 10:15	Between a Rock and a Hard Place - the Outlook for Sustainable Economic Growth A long-term view of South Africa's economic performance, underlining the relationship between political and economic factors and how they played out post-Apartheid. Based on work done through big data analysis, views will be shared on the likely economic performance under the current political and policy environments and the implications for investment and growth.	Claude Baissac Chief Executive Officer Eunomix
10:15 – 10:25	Risk Insight How is this information relevant for me as a business professional? A few tips to take back with you after today's sessions.	Christopher Palm, Chief Risk Advisor The Institute of Risk Management South Africa
10:25 – 10:55	Tea Break with Refreshments
10:55 – 11:40	Effective Risk Management in Action At the forefront of informing decision-making and enabling processes to drive transformation at the grass roots level in the public sector. Processes that have been implemented in the three tiers of government in order to transform the risk management controls which will enable better decision-making showing a significant impact whereby results will be frequently measured and assessed.	Bheki Gutshwa Chief Risk Officer Department of Rural Development and Land Reform
11:40 – 11:50	Risk Insight How can this apply to my organisation? Some more tips for you to empower your organisation.	Christopher Palm, Chief Risk Advisor The Institute of Risk Management South Africa
11:50 – 12:35	South Africa into the Future – Thinking like a Futurist Are you thinking like a futurist? Although it is important to analyse where we are as a country and where we are going, it is also imperative that we are “thinking about our thinking” as we help risk officers and business leaders to think about how they do these analyses and use this information	Graeme Codrington Futurist TomorrowToday Global effectively in business. A strong view of the future trends and the 2020's outlook for South Africa.

12:35 – 12:45	Risk Insight A few tips on how to apply this in my own role and make an impact now.	Christopher Palm, Chief Risk Advisor The Institute of Risk Management South Africa
12.45 – 13.00	Ending the day with Impact Closing thoughts from the Institute.	IRMSA Vice-President The Institute of Risk Management South Africa
13:00 – 13:30	Networking Lunch	