

California Emergency Waivers

IRP, Inc. received the following by email from Angela Marbray of California on March 24, 2020:

In response to the COVID-19 pandemic, California is allowing their IRP registrants with fleets expiring in March to be extended until May 15, 2020.

California has also informed its law enforcement agencies that vehicles from other jurisdictions may have expired IRP registrations on California roads until further notice.
