

Autonomic Dysreflexia Medical Emergency Card Translating into your language

General information

Who can apply:

- a) Physicians dealing with SCI
- b) SCI related scientific societies
- c) SCI hospitals / centers / departments / Institutions

Who to Contact:

To grant permission for translation contact Christina-Anastasia Rapti ISCoS representative (christina-anastasia.rapti@iscos.org.uk and rapidicha@hotmail.com) and Rutger Osterthun representative of ESPRM (rutger.osterthun@esprm.eu and r.osterthun@erasmusmc.nl)

- 1) Integration of the translated version
K. Katagas will perform the graphic design of the new card with the note:
ISCoS/ ESPRM has granted permission to translate this card to but has not verified the accuracy of the translation. The original English text is binding and remains the authentic version.*
- 2) Dissemination of the translated version
Each translated card will be uploaded on both ISCoS & ESPRM websites. It will be free for anyone to download.
- 3) Criteria for translators/reviewers
It is assumed that the lower criteria for translators/reviewers are accepted by translators: Translation starts by one person with fluency in English.
Following this the translated version is being reviewed by at least two reviewers: a physician who works with SCI patients in daily practice, and a non-physician health professional (e.g., nurse, physiotherapist, occupational therapist). Translators'/reviewers' names will be mentioned.
