

Kateřina Malá, RN

Katerina graduated from Nursing School at Mladá Boleslav (2001), Czech Republic and went on get her Professional training - Anesthesiologist, resuscitation and intensive care at Brno (2006). Since 2001 she has worked in the Cardiology department, since 2005 in the Coronary Care Unit and since 2012 she worked at the Catheterization Laboratory as head nurse in Central Military Hospital in Prague.

Since 2005 collaborates with the Reference Centre for Tobacco-Dependent at the General University Hospital, Prague. She is a member of the committee of the Society for Treatment of Tobacco Dependence (www.slzt.cz) in the Czech Republic.