ISNCC CONFERENCE SCHOLARSHIPS GUIDELINES

Purpose

The conference scholarship program has been established to facilitate the dissemination of cancer nursing knowledge to and by nurses in underserved populations – and thereby build capacity in these locations. Scholarship recipients will share their experiences and newly acquired knowledge with colleagues following attendance at the International Conference on Cancer Nursing.

Please note that for ICCN 2017, ISNCC will target graduate nursing students studying at institutions in North America and South America.

Application Criteria

The applicant nurse must:

- Be a graduate nursing student studying at institution in North America or South America.
- Not be an attendant at another ISNCC sponsored workshop associated with ICCN 2017 for which funding has been received
- Be sufficiently fluent in English to understand the conference proceedings
- Never have received a conference scholarship from ISNCC

Priority will be given to those applications that address the following:

1. Current ISNCC membership.
2. Evidence of ability to disseminate information gained from the conference.
3. Submitted an abstract for a poster or oral presentation at ICCN 2017.
4. Demonstration of initiative and enthusiasm in cancer nursing.

Conference scholarships are dependent on funding available, as determined by the ISNCC Nominations and Awards Committee.

Recipients of conference scholarships are expected to provide a written report on the International Conference on Cancer Nursing to the ISNCC Board and the organization(s) that have donated to ICCN 2017 Conference Scholarships, as required.

Conference Scholarships Presentation, Insignia and Funding

- Successful applicants will receive a distinctive award, approved by the ISNCC Nominations and Awards Committee
- The names of the Conference Scholarship winners will be inscribed in a Register of Awards to be held and maintained by the ISNCC Head Office
- Appropriate press releases will be made regarding the Conference Scholarships with the co-operation of the applicant
- Reimbursement will be made for an economy class return airfare to the conference venue, four night's hotel accommodation, meals (up to $50 USD/day) and a complimentary conference registration. Conference scholarships for registration-only will also be offered.

During the conference, Conference Scholarship recipients will be expected to:

- Agree to write a 500 word article for the ISNCC blog (International Cancer Nursing News) reflecting what the recipient has learned and how they will share their experiences and newly acquired knowledge with colleagues after the conference
- Written report to the ISNCC Board and the organization(s) that have donated to ICCN 2017 Conference Scholarships, as required
- Attend the ISNCC business meeting (held as part of the conference proceedings)
- Attend the ISNCC President's Social
