New York, NY, USA (September 2, 2025) – Registration is now open for the New York 2026 ISPA Congress, Resilience: A Global Dialogue. Welcoming all cultures, regions, genres, and disciplines within the performing arts field, more than 500 delegates from 60 regions around the world are expected to attend in-person.

“Under the leadership of co-chairs, Josephine Ridge (Executive Director, Arts; Banff Centre for Arts and Creativity) and Paul Tam (Executive Director, Performing Arts; West Kowloon Cultural District Authority), the 2026 Planning Committee thoughtfully offers a dialogue that is relevant and timely given the current global environment.” said CEO David Baile. Baile added, “This is a pivotal time for global arts leaders to gather, to affirm the importance of mobility, and celebrate the power of international collaboration through the arts.”

Congress Theme: Resilience: A Global Dialogue

In an era marked by economic volatility, geopolitical conflict, and ever-increasing isolationism, the ability to work internationally has become increasingly complex for organizations, independent producers, and artists. Together, we will explore how we can sustain and develop international partnerships, foster creative exchange, and cultivate the resilience needed to thrive in an unpredictable world.

The Congress theme will be explored through a variety of discussions presented in various formats ensuring a highly interactive three days. Popular programs promoting global exchange of the arts, include Pitch New Works and ProEx (Professional Exchange), will once again be held. The annual ISPA awards will be presented honoring some of the sector's top leaders and innovations/initiatives. The Congress will be returning to the iconic Times Center.
