Creators/Artists: Chung An Chang (Artistic Director); Chung An Chang and Maylis Arrabit (Collaborators in Choreography); Morag Deyes (Artistic Mentor); Jih Wen Yeh (International development Producer); Sasa, Shu Lin Hsiao (Company Manager); Hsin Ying Tsai (Light Design/Stage Manager); Chung An Chang, Maylis Arrabit, Shih Yun Fang, Yi Chen Juan, and Yo Chen Zheng (Performers); Hung Chih Chen (Live DJ)

Discipline: Inclusive Dance Genre: Contemporary
Touring Company: 10-11 (the company team plus the assistance for the disabled dancers)
Length: 45 minutes
Premiere: November 2021, Taikang Cultural Center, Tainan, Taiwan

Project Description: ‘Ice Age’ is a new international inclusive choreographic collaboration between Chung An Chang and Maylis Arrabit. The piece explores the different ways that people support each other, each in their own cultural environments. Covid 19 has brought the world to a standstill, and has impacted every country differently. Some governments believe the worst is over and they begin their economic games, some play chess, whilst others, poker. The stakes?... LIFE itself. Coming out of lockdown people face huge uncertainties. Though some people love the lockdown, others are freaking out, and going back to ‘normal’ is scary even for those who live in the safest place in the world.

Seeking: Commission funds, Co-producing partners, international touring opportunities (from 2022).
Performance Fee: $15,000 US for the 1st performance / $5,000 US for subsequent performance (Total fee negotiable depending on number of performances) plus travel, air-fare, freight, visa/work permit, accommodation and per diem. Workshop and Outreach: $300 US per workshop or $1,200 US per week.

Pitch Project 6: Island x Dancer

TAI Body Theatre (Taiwan) and EkosDance Company (Indonesia)
Commissioned and Produced by National Theater and Concert Hall (Taipei, Taiwan)

Pitch Presenters: Watan Tusi (Artistic Director, Tai Body Theatre) and Zou Feng Zhi (Producer Representative, National Theater and Concert Hall)
Creators/Artists: Watan Tusi (Artistic Director, TAI body theatre/Choreographer); Eko Supriyanto (Artistic Director, EkosDance Company/Choreographer); Ryo Tulus Pernando, Dinar Warih, Dwi Pamungkas, Trisya Novita Lolorie, and Mentari Aisha (Dancers, TAI body theatre); Piya Talaliman and Temu Masin (Dancers, EkosDance Company), TANG Fu-Kuen and Arco Renz (Dramaturge), Feng-chih Tsou (Producer and Touring, Taiwan); Karina Yang (Producer and Touring, Indonesia)

Discipline: Dance Genre: Contemporary Cast: 7 Touring Company: 12
Length: 85 minutes (15 minutes intermission)
Premiere: April 16, 2021, Experimental Theater NTCH, Taipei

Project Description: The cultural body of Watan Tusi and Eko Supriyanto both originate in tradition. Watan Tusi’s cultural body comes from nature’s perfection, uncomplicated and unpolished with subtlety and restraint. Eko Supriyanto’s cultural body comes from a solid grounding in court dances and martial arts training, exquisite and austere, yet subtle and restrained. This project attempts to bring together the two choreographers, and to invite the two to choreograph works from a different cultural context and physical training system for the other’s dancers. They will each gaze upon the other in mutual interrogation in this creative process.

Seeking: Co-producer and touring partner
Performance Fee: $11,000 per show plus travel, accommodation, freight, and per diem

Genre: Contemporary, Cabaret Revue with a Folk and Xhosa Troubadour Style
Cast: 1
Touring Company: 4
Length: 70 minutes (no intermission)
Premiere: November 2019, Baxter Theatre Cape Town, South Africa
Project Description: The One Who Sings traces the narrative of a young girl growing up in Apartheid South Africa. Zolani opens up for the first time about her struggles with sexual abuse within the family, interweaving a personal story with the narrative of a country undergoing its own tumultuous rites of passage. The work is as complex and elaborate in its impact, as it is simple in its execution. This is a telling of life story that taps directly into the zeitgeist of our connected world. It’s an integrated mode of storytelling that straddles spoken testimony and melody. Never has a story been more relevant. As the world comes to terms with harrowing testimony of the #MeToo movement.
Seeking: Touring Partners, Representation
Performance Fee: $23,000 per week for 6 performances - plus expenses

Pitch Project 10: Soft Lights for Sleepless Nights

Produced by Riverbed Theatre (Taiwan)
Pitch Presenter: Craig Quintero (Artistic Director, Riverbed Theatre)
Creators/ Artists: Craig Quintero (Director and Stage Design); Lynn Yeh (Producer); Ji-Yang Jiang and Shu-Ang Yeh (Lighting); Carl Johnson (Scenic Artist); I-hsuan Chen (Video); Min-Pang Hsu, Su-Hao Wang, Ra Thomson and Tzu-Hui Tseng (Costumes)

Discipline: Multidisciplinary
Genre: Contemporary
Cast: 6
Touring Company: 11
Length: 60 minutes (no intermission)
Premiere: December, 2019, Taiwan National Experimental Theatre, Taipei
Project Description: Using Hans Zimmer’s soundtrack for the film Interstellar as its “script,” Soft Lights for Sleepless Nights reanimates Zimmer’s musical score, taking the audience on a surreal, image-based journey. Created in response to the social, political, racial, economic and sexual inequity that prompted large scale protests around the world during the summer of 2019, the themes of the production are just as vital today as the world responds to the Covid-19 pandemic. The performance, like Zimmer’s soundtrack, ends with Dylan Thomas’ timeless clarion call to persevere in times of uncertainty and darkness, “Do not go gentle into that good night... rage, rage against the dying of the light.”
Seeking: Touring Partners
Performance Fee: The performance fee is $9,000 US for the first performance/ $5,000 US for subsequent performances (Total fee negotiable depending on final # of performances) + travel, freight, per diem, and accommodations, technical support per the rider. Fee includes Creative Process workshop (1) and/or Movement workshop (1).
