

Kim Donaghue

ISPAD President 2018-2020

*Professor, Child & Adolescent Health – Sydney Medical School
Senior Endocrinologist – Institute of Endocrinology & Diabetes*

Bio

Dr Donaghue graduated from Medicine (1979) at University of Sydney where she also completed her PhD on the role of puberty in the development of diabetes complications (2001).

She was a Harvard Research Fellow at Massachusetts General Hospital; and was subsequently appointed as a Staff Endocrinologist at the Children's Hospital at Westmead in 1990.

She led the Diabetes Service from 2004-2016; and was CoHead of Institute of Endocrinology and Diabetes 2010-2016. She was appointed as a Conjoint Professor in Child and Adolescent Health at the University of Sydney.

She is a Chief Investigator and Member of the Steering Committee of two major international trials to reduce complications from type 1 diabetes. Her last 10 year H-index for publications is 53 with annual citations of 743 in 2018.

She has a major interest in Education and evidence-based medicine. She was inaugural Chair of the Paediatric Endocrinology Curriculum for the Royal Australasian College of Physicians. She was one of four senior Editors of the ISPAD Consensus Guidelines for Pediatric Diabetes in 2006-9.

She gave the Plenary Lecture on "The Future of Childhood Diabetes" in November 2018 for the IDF Western Pacific Meeting in Kuala Lumpur; and in 2019 is an invited speaker for ADA, ESPE and IDF.