INTERNATIONAL SOCIETY FOR THIRD-SECTOR RESEARCH

November – December 2019

ISTR Funds Now Accepting Donations

Two funds have been established to make it possible to support emerging scholars, researchers and students to advance Third Sector Studies. The funds are used to recognize and support Society members from the Global South and PhD students in advancing their scholarly and professional goals.

PhD Seminar Fund

Provides support for student participation at the ISTR PhD Seminar

The ISTR PhD Seminar is open for all enrolled doctoral students in the field of third sector and civil society research, across the different regions in the world, and at all stages of their doctoral research.

The aim of the workshop is to provide doctoral students with the opportunity to engage with senior scholars and peers in extensive intellectual and methodological discussion on their doctoral research, to discuss the main theories and developments in the field, to reflect upon publication and career strategies, and to provide a unique opportunity to network within the international ISTR research community and civil society in general.

Conference Registration Subsidy Fund

Provides support for members from the developing world presenting at the ISTR Conference

These subsidies allow for a reduced conference registration rate for researchers, scholars, practitioners and students from the global south. Reduced dues rates are tied to the categories of GDP per capita published in the annual World Bank World Development Report. Reduced categories apply to country of residence and allow the Society to support these members.

The Society is most grateful to our supporters of these funds:

- Susan Appe, Rockefeller College of Public Affairs, SUNY at Albany, USA
- Angela Eikenberry, University of Nebraska at Omaha, USA
- Hyunkyung Jun, The Beautiful Foundation, South Korea
- Julius Omona, Makerere University, Uganda
- Yevgenya Paturyan, American University of Armenia, Armenia
