

Center Spotlight: Jain Society of Metropolitan Washington

Jain Society of Metropolitan Washington (JSMW) had recently organized a very pleasant, joyous, and successful Social Event 2016 at the Clarion Inn Hotel in College Park, MD. The event was organized by enthusiastic women of the center and had received very positive and overwhelming response.

Highlights of Social Event 2016:

The event was attended by above 250 people. The theme was "Bollywood Meets Hollywood" The audience was treated to an hour long performances by our members of all ages, from toddlers to youth, adults and senior citizens. Event served 100% Jain and Vegan food, and Chauvihar accommodated. The event was fully financed and paid through ticket sales, donations.

Center had received positive feedback to this event from the members demanding more such gatherings be organized where, kids, senior citizens, adults all enjoyed a lot as it has brought the community together.

The Chair Person, Board of Trustees, Dr. Sushil Jain thanked the Ladies Group for organizing such a wonderful event and tasking them to bring forth more such events to bring the Society members together.

In closing, the Ladies Group is in the middle of planning a "Summer Picnic and Fun" event.

More event photos and videos are available at www.JainSocietyDC.org