3rd Veerayatan Global Convention
January 24-26, 2016

It is our great pleasure to invite you to attend 3rd Veerayatan Global Convention at Rajgir, Bihar on January 24 – 26, 2016. The three day convention will celebrate the very essence of Veerayatan: Seva (Service), Shiksha (Education) and Sadhana (Spiritual Development).

This is an opportunity to understand various initiatives undertaken by Veerayatan and molding its future path to uplift peace and prosperity on earth through value based education while advancing Lord Mahaveer’s message of Compassion in Action – Acharya Shri Chandanaji’s lifelong mission.

Acharya Shriji has envisioned the convention as a joint venture of Veerayatan worldwide, a joyful collaboration of all the international partners of Veerayatan. The three day celebration will coincide with a Mega Eye Camp, Veerayatan has undertaken with the goal of performing 8,000 Eye operations in recognition of Acharya Shriji’s 80th birthday at “Netra Jyoti Seva Mandiram (NJSM)”.

There will also be an optional sight-seeing opportunities during convention (For Rajgir, Nalanda and Pawapuri) and post-convention OPTIONAL YATRA to Lachwaad and Shikharji starting in Rajgir on 27th January and ending in Kolkata on 31st January 2016.

The lodging, boarding and admission to the convention is totally free of any charges, however, you must REGISTER before 12/31/2015 to attend this auspicious convention. Additional information about the Convention, YATRA and Registration can be found by clicking on the following links.
