Jain Digest is making an impact....

Each issue of Jain Digest has been received very well by the Jain community of North America. We have received many compliments on the topics covered in the magazine promoting information and education with Jain values. Here below are some of the comments from the August issue focused on Jain Youth.

“Jain Digest is one of the few magazines that I look forward to receive and read it as much as I can. I always seek various ways to motivate the children at JSGD (Jain Society of Greater Detroit). My experience tells me that most of the children-youth-do think sincerely, look at the role models, discuss among their friends and adopt the good points from it. I am very much impressed with the presentation style of youth and their expressions through their writings. In fact it has become a learning tool for me. I hope this will continue and Jain Digest will have a bigger role to make it happen, My Best wishes.”

- Mahendra J. Shah, Canton, Michigan, Member of Education Sub Committee at JSGD.

“Great to read the digest. You are doing a great service.. Putting these important voices – reading all the young voices (from everyday youth to those taking diksha) made me hopeful about the future of Jainism.”

- Nipun Mehta, Founder, serviceSpace.org.

“Thank you so much. This is very uplifting and thought provoking issue of Jain Digest, done beautifully. Lots of congratulations to all the team members.”

- Dr. Sulekh Jain, Houston, Texas, Past President of JAINA

In the December issue of Jain Digest, we bring you articles on the theme of “Forgiveness”. It will be mailed to all the members in a couple weeks. Please send your comments and suggestions to jaindigestpublication@gmail.com
