JAINA leadership team wishes each and every family “Happy Holidays and wonderful time with your family during this Holiday Season.

As Holiday season approaches each year, there comes many opportunities for Charitable giving. Are you passionate about helping our community? We humbly appeal to you to consider giving your contributions to JAINA:

Here are the top five reasons to celebrate this Holiday Season by giving back to our Community through JAINA”

- It is the smart way of making your contributions go further since every dollar you contribute gets most efficiently & effectively utilized by JAINA
  - Example: JAINA is made up of outstanding dedicated volunteers serving our community as such our overall administrative charges are well below 3% compared to National Average of 10% to 15% with other reputable Charitable Organizations!
- JAINA uses your contributions in various programs established and proven successful in helping so many ways
  - Examples: Jivdaya, JAINA Calendar, JAINA General Funds, JAINA Convention 2019, Jain Milan, Jain Digest, YJA Donation, Young Jain Professionals, JAINA Mangalam TV Show, JAINA long Rang Range Planning, JAINA Uplifting Jains out of Poverty, Wellness and Women Empowerment program and more
- JAINA uses your contributions on basis of Principles of Jainism
  - Examples: None of our fundraising efforts or any community events JAINA conduct ever uses any of your contributions in serving any type of alcoholic drinks or non-vegetarian foods
- JAINA is well established and registered 501 c (3) Non Profit charitable organization in North America so your contributions are tax deductible to the extent federal and local laws/regulations allow.
  - Background: JAINA has been around well over three decades helping at local, national and International levels “Jain way of life for generations to come” Wouldn’t you like to be the one to help such wonderful Organization built by leaders from within our own community providing services to our own families through community events, education, scholarships, internships, network and infrastructure that is built on principles of Jainism?

- JAINA believes in serving & preserving our JAIN Religion and Unified Community
  - Background: JAINA services over 150,000 Jains and over 70+ Sanghs in North America. JAINA's mission is to preserve and share Jain Religion and Jain way of life and have a vibrant and unified Jain Community in North America.

Every dollar you contribute gets used in various programs that is designed to advance our young and adults to learn and cherish our culture in so many ways. Attached link gives you an idea as to how many different ways you can contribute to JAINA projects:

You can donate monthly or long term, for a specific fund or to JAINA General Funds which gets shared with many programs within the umbrella of various JAINA projects.

Other smart ways to donate to JAINA can include doubling your donations with matching gift programs at companies you work for or even shopping at Amazon site smile.amazon.com naming JAINA as the charity you support. Give stocks that Appreciated in value that has been held more than a year to give you better return by giving as a gift and save you on taxes or even volunteer at JAINA events at local, regional or national level.
