

CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS OF FEDERATION OF JAIN ASSOCIATIONS IN NORTH AMERICA

ARTICLE I -- PREAMBLE

WHEREAS, an increasing number of families of Jain origin and heritage have become residents of the continent of North America,

BE IT RESOLVED that a religious organization be formed to provide a forum to foster friendship and unity among various Jain communities of North America and elsewhere. This shall be a nonprofit and non-political organization.

ARTICLE II -- NAME

The name of the organization shall be: Federation of Jain Associations in North America (JAINA), hereinafter referred to as the "Federation". For the purpose of this constitution, North America is defined as being composed of the United States of America and Canada.

ARTICLE III -- OBJECTIVES

The objectives of the Federation shall be:

1. To promote religious and educational activities related to Jain religion and to promote study and understanding of Jain religion on a non-sectarian basis.
2. To assist existing Jain Associations and promote the formation of new non-sectarian Jain Associations throughout North America.
3. To provide and promote academic and cultural interchanges and cooperation among Jains in North America, India and other countries.
4. To assist and to promote charitable community service activities in North America, India, and other countries.
5. To promote tenets of Jain religion.
6. To assist in the establishment of Jain temples and Ashrams.
7. To establish liaison with governmental and other agencies in pursuance of the above objectives.

ARTICLE IV -- MEMBERSHIP

1. Membership will consist of Jain Associations in North America as detailed below:
 - (a) A non-sectarian Jain Association which is formed in a local entity such as a town, city or metropolitan area, and has a membership of at least 15 families residing in that entity, shall be eligible to become a new member of the Federation provided it subscribes to the objectives of the Federation
 - (b) The Jain Association will be admitted as a member of the Federation upon a unanimous vote of the Executive Committee or a majority vote of the Board of Directors.
 - (c) An organization that subscribes to the objectives of the Federation but is not formed as a local entity can become an Affiliate of the Federation as per Article XIII of this Constitution and By-Laws.
2. A Member Association may resign from membership by giving written notice to the Secretary. Fees or parts thereof shall not be refunded.
3. Member Associations and Affiliates in good standing shall be those associations/organizations which have paid all required dues as prescribed in the By-Laws.
4. Representatives of Member Associations whose annual fees are in arrears will not be entitled to vote, make nominations, or hold office in the Federation. The Federation Secretary shall inform such Member Associations of the suspension of their privileges in writing. If in spite of such notice, the fees remain in arrears for a period of two years, the Member Associations concerned shall be deemed to have resigned.
5. A Member Association that ceases to meet the membership criteria listed in paragraphs 1 to 3 above can be removed as a member by a majority vote of the Board of Directors. Prior to such voting, a 120 days' notice shall be given to that Member Association detailing the criteria not being met and requesting to rectify the criteria not being met.

ARTICLE V – ORGANIZATION

1. Board of Directors.

The Board of Directors shall be the highest authority of the Federation and shall set policies and develop long term plans of the Federation. The Board will form the general body of the Federation. It shall be composed of the Directors, Directors-at-Large and members of the Ombudsman Council (referred to in paragraph 3 below) as follows:

- (a) Directors nominated by Member Associations:
 - (i) Each Member Association shall be entitled to nominate one to three directors to the Board in accordance with their membership strength as follows:

- (1) Association with membership of 50 or less families shall nominate 1 director
 - (2) Association with membership of 51 to 300 families shall nominate 2 directors
 - (3) Association with membership of more than 300 families shall nominate 3 directors
- (ii) For the purpose of the above paragraph (i), the number of families of the Member Association will be counted as only those families living in the Member Association's metropolitan area or within 60 mile radius of the Member Association's center of activities. The "member family" of the Member Association shall be clearly defined in the Member Association's constitution. In the case of a family being a member of two or more Member Associations and also living within the metropolitan area of those Member Associations or within 60 mile radius of those Member Associations' center of activities, that member family will be counted as member of only one of those Member Associations as decided by that family.
 - (iii) All Member Associations shall submit an official list of member families including their home addresses to the Executive Committee of the Federation by the last Tuesday of February of each calendar year.
 - (iv) Member Associations shall submit nomination for their directors to the Executive Committee of the Federation. A nominated director must be a member of the nominating Member Association and must maintain a household in the metropolitan area or within 60 mile radius of the center of activities of that Member Association.
 - (v) Only one person from a family residing in the same household shall be nominated as director.
 - (vi) The nominated directors shall serve for a term of 2 years that begins on 1st of April of odd calendar year and ends on the 31st of March of the next odd calendar year.
 - (vii) A new Member Association shall nominate its director(s) at the time it becomes a member of the Federation, and send the name and contact information of their director(s) to the Federation Executive Committee.
- (b) Directors-At-Large
- (i) The Executive Committee shall be authorized to nominate up to four (4) Directors-at-Large from the entire Jain community in North America. These directors will be selected on the basis of their exceptional knowledge and commitment to the objectives of the Federation.
 - (ii) Young Jain Professionals (YJP) shall be authorized to nominate one of their officers as a Director-at-Large.

- (iii) The Directors-at-Large shall serve until the expiration of the term of the Executive Committee or YJP committee selecting them. They shall enjoy the same privileges as the directors except that they will not be entitled to nominate or stand for election to a post on the Executive Committee or to vote at an election for that Committee. They will however be entitled to vote at general body meetings of the Board of Directors.
- (c) Members of the Ombudsman Council (referred to in paragraph 3 below) who are not Directors shall enjoy the same privilege as the Directors-at-Large.
- (d) The President will serve as the chair of the Board of Directors.

2. Executive Committee.

- (a) The governing body responsible for the operations of the Federation shall be an Executive Committee constituted as follows:
 - (i) President
 - (ii) First Vice President
 - (iii) Secretary
 - (iv) Treasurer
 - (v) Seven (7) Regional Vice Presidents, one from Canada, and one from each of the following six regions of the United States as defined in the By-Laws: West U.S., South West U.S., South East U.S., Mid West U.S., Mid East U.S., and North East U.S.
 - (vi) One Member-at-Large representing Young Jains of America (YJA)
 - (vii) Immediate Past President

Members of the Executive Committee (except the YJA Member-at-Large) shall be elected by the Board of Directors from among its members (directors) in accordance with the Article XI of this Constitution and By-Laws. YJA Executive Board will elect one of their officers to represent them at the Executive Committee as a Member-atLarge.

- (b) The Term of Office of the Executive Committee and its members shall be as follows:
 - (i) The term of the elected Executive Committee members shall be about two years starting first of January of even calendar year.
 - (ii) No person shall hold the same position for more than two consecutive terms.
 - (iii) A member of the Executive Committee whose membership on the Board as a director expires prior to the expiry of his/her term in the Executive Committee shall continue to serve on the Executive Committee for his/her full term and enjoy all the privileges of a Director for that term unless he/she resigns, except that he/she shall not be entitled to nominate or stand for election or to vote during the election if he/she is not re-nominated as a Director.
- (c) Any vacancy arising on the Executive Committee during its term of office shall be filled from among the Directors by a majority vote of the remaining members of the Executive Committee. The elected member shall serve for the unexpired portion of the term of the Committee.

- (d) The outgoing Executive Committee must complete all the pending financial work and hand over all papers to the new Executive Committee within 30 days after the new Executive Committee takes over.

3. Appointed Officers.

The Executive Committee may appoint additional officers (e.g. Executive Assistant, Assistant Secretary, Assistant Treasurer, etc) as required. These officers may be invited to attend the Executive Committee meetings but shall not have voting powers. Their authority shall be described in their appointment letter. They are authorized to represent the Federation to external organizations to the extent of their authority. Their term will last until the term of the Executive Committee.

4. Ombudsman Council.

The Ombudsman Council of the Federation shall consist of 5 five (5) most recent past presidents of the Federation not including the immediate past president who is a member of the Executive Committee. The council shall be chaired by the most recent past president out of all council members. The role of the Ombudsman Council will be to ensure that the Federation is functioning as stipulated by the Constitution and By-Laws, and that none of the members of the Executive Committee, Entities or Committees of the Federation are exceeding their authority as delegated in this Constitution and By-Laws. If any violation of Constitution or By-Laws is found by the council, it will report its findings and recommendations within 30 days to the Board of Directors for necessary action.

5. Standing, Operational and Ad-hoc Committees.

- (a) The Executive Committee shall have the authority to appoint standing, operational and ad-hoc committees as needed. Standing committees are those which provide continuing services to the community to achieve the goals and objectives of the Federation. Members of a standing committee need not be members of the Board of Directors but the chairperson shall preferably be a member of the Board. Operational committees are those which are required to execute functions of the Federation. Ad Hoc committees are those which are established to accomplish a specific purpose. The ad-hoc committee should be dissolved once their task is completed unless new additional responsibilities are defined. A proposed Standing committee will be first appointed as an Ad-Hoc committee which can be converted to a standing committee after two years of successful operation.
- (b) The scope and the charter of the committees shall be approved by the Executive Committee of the Federation. The committee charter shall subscribe to the objectives and procedures laid out in the By-Laws of this Constitution and By-Laws. The standing committees and its charter must be approved by the Board of Directors within two years after it being declared as a standing committee.

- (c) The committee chair shall be responsible for the operation of the committee. The committee chair shall be responsible to present a yearly report to the President. The committee chair shall also present a long term and short term plan including budget projections as requested by the President.
- (d) In case of a conflict between the committee charter and this Constitution and By-Laws, this Constitution and By-Laws shall prevail.
- (e) Grandfather Provisions: For the purpose of applying the terms of this section, all current committees will be treated as if they are appointed upon approval of this constitutional amendment.

6. Entities.

- (a) Entities are the youth wings of the Federation that have their own Constitution and ByLaws covering their standard operating procedures. These entities include Young Jains of America (YJA) and Young Jain Professionals (YJP).
- (b) The scope, charter, and By-Laws of entities shall be approved by the Board of Directors of the Federation. The entities' Constitution & By-Laws shall subscribe to the objectives and procedures laid out in this Constitution and By-Laws. In case of a conflict between Constitution & By-Laws of an entity and this Constitution and By-Laws, this Constitution and By-Laws shall prevail.
- (c) Any amendment to the Constitution and By-Laws of entity shall be approved by the Board of Directors of the Federation
- (d) The entities shall operate autonomously under their respective Constitution & By-Laws. If a matter can not be resolved by the Executive Board of the entity, the entity's Executive Board can elevate that matter to the Federation Executive Committee for arbitration and decision. The decision of the Federation Executive committee shall be final.
- (e) The entity shall follow all financial procedures set by the Treasurer. The entity's financial management person shall be responsible for record keeping for the entity, but the financial assets of the committee will be managed by the Treasurer.

7. Convention Boards.

A JAINA Convention Board will be appointed by the Executive Committee for each JAINA Convention. A YJA Convention Board will be appointed by the YJA Executive Board for each YJA Convention. A YJP Convention Board will be appointed by the YJP Executive Board for each YJP Convention. The duties, authorities, term, and structure for each of these Boards are defined in the By-Laws

8. Nature of Operations

- (a) Notwithstanding any other provisions in the articles, the Federation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, scientific and other purposes as specified in Section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (or the corresponding Canadian laws), and shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on:
 - (i) by an organization exempt from Federal income tax under Internal Revenue Code Section 501 (c)(3) (or the corresponding Canadian laws) or any subsequent Federal tax laws; or
 - (ii) by an organization contribution to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code (or the corresponding Canadian laws) or any subsequent Federal tax laws.
- (b) No part of the net earnings of the Federation shall inure to the benefit of any member, trustee, director, officer of the Federation, or any private individual, except that the Federation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered to or for the Federation, and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes of Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code (or the corresponding Canadian laws).
- (c) No substantial part of the activities of the Federation shall be the carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation or participating in, or intervening in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidates for public office.

ARTICLE VI -- DUTIES OF THE OFFICERS

1. Duties of the Board Chair:

- (a) The Board chair shall preside over all Board meetings and shall publish the minutes of the Board meetings to the Board and the Executive Committee. The minutes shall be published in the Federation publications.
- (b) The Board chair shall be responsible for developing policies of the Federation. All policies shall be approved by a majority vote of the Board of Directors.
- (c) The Board chair shall be responsible for developing long term plans of the Federation. The plans shall be circulated to the Executive Committee and upon receiving its concurrence, shall be sent to the Directors for approval. The long term plan shall be reviewed and revised at least once every two years.

2. Duties of the Executive Committee:

- (a) The President shall be the chief executive officer of the Federation. The President shall preside over the meetings of the Executive Committee and shall be responsible for carrying out the business of the Federation. The President shall present a two year operational plan to the Board of Directors for approval within six months after election. The plan shall include goals/objectives to be achieved, budgets and timetable.

- (b) The First Vice President will assist the President in his/her duties. The First Vice President will perform the duties of the President in the absence of the President. The First Vice President may also assume the responsibility of leading the Biennial JAINA convention as its Convener.
- (c) The Secretary shall keep the minutes of all meetings of the Executive Committee and distribute minutes to the members of the Committee, the Board of Directors, and the Ombudsman Council. The Secretary shall also keep the minutes of the meetings of the Board of Directors and distribute such minutes to the Board and the Ombudsman Council. Alternative to distribution of minutes, the Secretary can post the minutes on the Federation web, and inform all distributees of its posting on the web. The Secretary shall present a report on the activities of the Federation to the Board of Directors at a regular meeting of the Board. The Secretary shall assume the responsibility of the administrative functions of the Federation and work closely with the operational committees responsible for administration of the Federation, such as, the Legal Advisory Committee, Media Production Committee and Book Stores Committee.
- (d) The Treasurer shall be responsible for all financial functions and financial assets of the Federation including those of any committee or entity. The Treasurer shall be responsible for managing relationships and accounts with all Financial Institutions. All assets and financial accounts must be held in full legal name of the Federation "Federation of Jain Associations In North America". The Treasurer shall be responsible for maintaining record of assets and accounts and shall submit a consolidated statement of accounts at a regular meeting of the Board of Directors. The Treasurer shall facilitate an audit of accounts by independent auditors or by the Audit Committee at least once every two years. The Treasurer shall be responsible for preparing and signing all required financial governmental forms. The Treasurer shall work closely with the operational committees responsible for raising the general operating fund of the Federation such as Membership Committee and Patron Program Committee.
- (e) The Regional Vice Presidents will assume responsibilities for various activities and/or committees as needed, and assist the President in his/her duties. In addition, they will act as liaison officers for the Member Associations located in their region by keeping them informed of the Federation activities, and providing their feedback to the Federation Executive Committee.

ARTICLE VII -- MEETINGS

1. A regular meeting of the Board of Directors shall be called by the President, the chairperson of the Board of Directors, at least two times every year for the transaction of the general business of the Federation. The directors should attend at least one meeting per year. Teleconference facilities may be used for the Board of Directors' meeting. However, during an odd calendar year during which biennial JAINA convention is held, the regular meeting of the Board shall be held during the scheduled JAINA Convention days, or, one day prior to the scheduled JAINA Convention days. In case a biennial JAINA Convention is not held during an odd calendar year, the meeting of the Board of Directors for that year shall preferably be held in the month of July and teleconference facilities may be used for such meeting.

2. The chairperson shall convene a special meeting of the Board within six weeks of the receipt of a written request signed by at least one fourth of the membership of the Board.
3. The quorum for a meeting of the Board of Directors shall be constituted by the attendance of 25% of the directors.

Decisions arrived at by voting shall be valid only when the number of votes returned is at least half of the total membership of the Board.
5. The President shall call a meeting of the Executive Committee at least four times a year. A meeting by telephone conference call shall count as a valid meeting of the Executive Committee. The attendance of a majority of the members shall constitute the quorum for a meeting of the Executive Committee. Decision of the Executive Committee on specific issues may also be arrived at through voting by mail.

ARTICLE VIII -- FINANCING

1. The official year of the Federation shall be a calendar year from January 1 through December 31.
2. The annual membership fees for Member Associations shall be determined by the Board of Directors and specified in the By-Laws. The membership dues shall be payable on January 1 of each year.
3. The Executive Committee and the Board of Directors may raise funds to meet the objectives of the Federation from sources they consider appropriate.
4. The Executive Committee or its officers shall not at any time authorize an expenditure that exceeds the available net assets of the Federation.
5. Donations received for a specific purpose, including any income from the investment of the funds received, shall be used for the same specific purpose.
6. Any endowment fund received by the Federation shall remain inviolate and in perpetuity until the dissolution of the Federation. The income from the investment of such fund may be used for the activities of the Federation. However, if the fund has been endowed for a specific purpose, its income shall be used only for that specific purpose. Neither the President nor any member of the Executive committee shall be authorized to borrow any funds from the endowment fund.
7. The Executive Committee may accept donations to help other charitable, religious, cultural and educational institutions in North America, India and other countries provided such donations are classified as acceptable contributions under the Internal Revenue Code (or the relevant Canadian Law). Acceptance of such donations should support the objectives of the Federation. The requirements for recipient organizations outside of USA are defined in the By-Laws.

ARTICLE IX -- LIMITATIONS

1. Member Associations will be autonomous in their own internal affairs. The Federation shall not interfere in the affairs of the Member Associations with regards to their organization, operation and to their policies on religious practices, rituals, and temple interior and exterior details.
2. Affairs of the Federation shall be conducted without preference to any sects of Jainism.
3. The Federation shall not give a financial support to any Member Association unless approved by the Board of Directors by a two-third majority vote.

ARTICLE X – CONVENTIONS

1. A convention of the Federation (herein referred to as JAINA Convention) shall be held once every two years in odd calendar years, preferably in the month of July, but no earlier than 15th of May. The venue of the biennial JAINA Convention shall be decided by a majority vote of the Executive Committee at least twelve months prior to the convention date. If the convention can not be held for some unforeseen reasons, it may be cancelled.
2. JAINA Convention Convener shall submit an interim report of the convention finances to the JAINA EC within 45 (Forty-five) days after the convention is over and shall submit the final report to the Board of Directors within 75 (Seventy-five) days.
3. YJA shall hold its conventions once every two years in even calendar years, preferably in the month of July or August, but no earlier than 15th of May. The venue of the convention shall be decided by a majority vote of their governing body at least six months prior to the convention date.
4. YJP may hold its conventions once every year, preferably in the month of October, but no earlier than 15th of May. The venue of the convention shall be decided by a majority vote of their governing body at least six months prior to the convention date.
5. Special or regional conventions may also be held from time to time.

ARTICLE XI -- ELECTIONS

1. An Election Committee shall be appointed to facilitate the election of a new Executive Committee.
2. The Election Committee shall consist of a chairperson and four (4) members appointed by the Executive Committee. The appointment of the Election Committee shall be made no later than 1st of April of each odd calendar year.

3. The Election Committee shall be responsible for inviting nominations for all the offices of the Executive Committee and for conducting the elections in accordance with the BY-LAWS.

ARTICLE XII -- SUSPENSION/REMOVAL OF ELECTED MEMBER

The Executive Committee may suspend their member for (a) misappropriation of funds, (b) working actively against the objectives of the Federation, or for (c) gross misconduct. Such suspension shall need an approval by a two-thirds majority vote at the Executive Committee meeting called for that purpose. Permanent removal of such a member from the Executive Committee shall be conducted by General Body voting by signed mail ballots or secure electronic ballots. To become effective, affirmative votes must be received from at least two-thirds of the members of the Board returning ballots, but in no case from less than 25% of the total membership of the Board.

ARTICLE XIII -- AFFILIATE ORGANIZATIONS

A social, religious, academic or community service organization that subscribes to the objectives of the Federation shall be eligible to become an affiliate of the Federation. The organization will be recognized as an affiliate upon a unanimous vote of the Executive Committee or a majority vote of the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE XIV -- BY-LAWS

1. The By-Laws of the Federation are described in the attached section titled By-Laws.
2. The Executive Committee may, from time to time during its term, propose addition of new By-Laws or amendments to the existing By-Laws. Proposals for additions or amendments to By-Laws shall be presented to the Board of Directors for a vote. At least a four-week written prior notice shall be given to members of the Board of Directors for voting. The Executive Committee shall secure the vote by any of the following methods:
 - (a) voting by signed mail ballots or secure electronic ballots
 - (b) voting by signed paper ballots at a special or regular meeting of the Board
3. To become effective, an amendment must receive affirmative votes from at least two-thirds of the members of the Board returning ballots, but in no case from less than half of the total membership of the Board.
4. In case of a contradiction between the By-Laws and the Constitution, the provisions of the Constitution shall prevail.

ARTICLE XV -- DISSOLUTION

1. The notice to consider dissolution of the Federation shall be circulated to the entire membership of the Board at least six weeks in advance of the date of a meeting of the Board called for the purpose or the date of the closing of a letter ballot.
2. Dissolution shall require a 3/4 majority vote of the Board of Directors. Upon dissolution, the assets and property of the Federation remaining after paying or providing for the debts and obligations of the Federation shall be equally distributed amongst the Member Associations which have established a tax-exempt status under Section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or under the corresponding Canadian laws) or any subsequent Federal tax laws, and are willing and able to accept the distribution. However, if none of the Member Associations is a qualified distributee and willing and able to accept the distribution, then, the assets of the Federation shall be distributed to a fund, foundation or corporation organized and operated exclusively for the purposes specified in Section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (or the corresponding Canadian laws) or any subsequent Federal tax laws.

ARTICLE XVI -- AMENDMENTS

1. The Executive Committee of the Federation shall appoint a constitution review committee consisting of a minimum of 5 members. All proposed amendments received by the Executive Committee shall be referred to the constitution review committee for recommendation.
2. The constitution review committee shall submit its draft recommendations to the Executive Committee. Any changes/suggestions proposed by the Executive committee will be reviewed and considered by the constitution review committee. The constitution review committee will provide its final draft recommendations to the Executive Committee for sending it out to the members of the Board for review and comments allowing them a minimum of 3 weeks for providing their comments/suggestions.
3. The constitution review committee will consider the comments/suggestions received from the members of the Board, and prepare a set of final recommendations. The Executive committee will send out these recommendations to all members of the Board for voting.
4. At least a four-week written prior notice shall be given to members of the Board of Directors for voting on any amendments to the constitution. The proposed amendments along with the current constitution shall be included with the notice.
5. The Executive Committee shall secure the vote of the members of the Board by any of the following methods, and compile the results:
 - (a) voting by signed mail ballots or secure electronic ballots;
 - (b) voting by signed paper ballots at a special or regular meeting of the Board
6. To become effective, an amendment must receive affirmative votes from at least two-thirds of the members of the Board returning ballots, but in no case from less than half of the total membership of the Board.

7. The constitution review committee shall prepare revised Constitution and By-Laws based on the amendments approved by the members of the Board as per paragraph 6 above, sign the certificate of its adoption, and provide the results of voting and the ratified revised Constitution and By-Laws to the Executive Committee for record and for sending out to the members of the Board.

ARTICLE XVII -- INTERPRETATION

1. If a conflict arises in the interpretation of the constitution, the ambiguity shall be resolved by a majority vote of the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE XVIII -- ADOPTION

1. The original constitution of the Federation was adopted on May 29, 1983.
2. After discussion, each article of the original constitution was duly moved, seconded and adopted. The following resolution adopting the final constitution was passed unanimously by the founding Jain Associations.
