

January's Featured KBA Guardian Ad Litem Telephone and Webinar CLE Series:

1/28/2014

Guardian ad Litem 101: The Nuts and Bolts of Representing Children as GAL Erna K Loomis, Loomis Law Offices LLC, Olathe

This presentation will provide an overview of the duties and responsibilities involved in representing children in Child in Need of Care and other family court matters as a guardian ad litem.
* Applied for 1.0 hour of CLE credit

1/29/2014

Pardon Our Dust: Reconstructing Appellate Jurisdiction Under the Revised Kansas Code for Care of Children and Other Odds and Ends (Part One)

Dennis Stanchik, Dennis J. Stanchik P.A., Olathe

The presentation will focus on three areas of the RKCCC that present potential problems to the practitioner. Specifically, the presentation will focus on: (1) K.S.A. 38-2272(d) and the possible unintended consequences when the court retains jurisdiction after appointing a permanent custodian; (2) whether K.S.A. 38-2286 provides any effective relief for a grandparent who has not been appointed as custodian or designated as placement for a grandchild; and, (3) whether the line of cases interpreting the provisions of K.S.A. 38-2273(a) have established a two pronged test for determining whether a particular order entered in a case governed by the RKCCC may be appealed. If time permits, the presentation will also discuss appellate opinions interpreting the RKCCC published in 2013.

* Applied for 1.0 hour of CLE credit

1/30/2014

Pardon Our Dust: Reconstructing Appellate Jurisdiction Under the Revised Kansas Code for Care of Children and Other Odds and Ends (Part Two)

Dennis Stanchik, Dennis J. Stanchik P.A., Olathe

This program is the part two continuation of the January 29, 2014 presentation of Interpreting the Revised Kansas Code for Care of Children— Where are the Pitfalls? These two phone CLEs can be viewed independently of one another and do not have to be viewed together in order to receive full credit.

* Applied for 1.0 hour of CLE credit
