

Mr. Alan C. Cranford, PO, One AWWA Operator Scholarship, Community Engineering Corps;

Alan earned a Master of Science Degree in Strategic Studies from the United States Army War College in Carlisle, Pennsylvania, a Bachelor of Science Degree in Public Administration from Athens State University and an Associate of Science Degree in Water and Wastewater Management Technology from Shoals Community College. Mr. Cranford has been an employee of the Murfreesboro Water Resource Department (MWRD), Murfreesboro, Tennessee for over seventeen (17) years in the position of Water Treatment Plant Manager. Mr. Cranford is a certified Class IV Professional Operator (PO) by the Certification Commission for Environmental Professionals (C2EP) of the Association of Boards of Certification and is a Grade IV Water Treatment, Grade II Distribution System and Grade II Collection System Operator in the State of Tennessee and Grade IV Water Treatment Operator in the State of Alabama. Mr. Cranford is an active member of the Association of Board of Certification, American Water Works Association (AWWA), Kentucky/Tennessee Section American Water Works Association (KY/TN Section AWWA) and served as the KY/TN Section AWWA Chair in 2006-2007 and was a recipient of the George Warren Fuller Award from AWWA in 2010. Mr. Cranford has a wife, April, and seven (7) children and three (3) grandchildren.