

Application

Those applying for the Academy should be current employees in the field of aging services with the potential and desire to make an impact on their organization and on the field of aging services. We encourage applicants from varied disciplines, experience levels, and industry knowledge to ensure a vibrant exchange of ideas and discussion. In order to better facilitate group learning and cohesion, the 2019 class will be capped at 24 participants. For questions, please contact us at 517-323-3687 or via email at Info@LeadingAgeMI.org.

Due to the announcement of our new facilitator, the Application Deadline is extended to April 1, 2019!

Application Must Include:

- Application Form
- Two Essays - in response to: "What are your leadership goals for aging services?" and "What is your commitment to the field of aging services?" Each essay should be one page, double-spaced.
- Two Letters of Reference - These letters should speak to the applicant's leadership performance, potential and commitment to non-profit aging services.
- Current Resumé - The resumé must include complete documentation of education and relevant work experience.
- Commitment Form - Completed by both the applicant and sponsoring organization.

Applications will be evaluated by an experienced and diverse committee based on the following criteria:

- How well-defined, insightful, and introspective the leadership essays are;
- Does the applicant demonstrate a personal commitment to aging services
- Does the applicant demonstrate a dedication to lifelong learning; and
- To what extent does the applicant possess the leadership capacity needed to become a transformational leader.
