

2019 LeadingAge Texas Awards Program ORGANIZATION/GROUP AWARDS

Awards marked * indicate both individuals AND organizations/groups are eligible to be nominated.

DIVERSITY *

Individual • Organization/Group

The Diversity Award recognizes an individual or organization that has effected positive change through a significant commitment to diversity and inclusion.

- The nominee demonstrates significant achievement in diversity and inclusion with respect to residents, the community, staff and/or in the development of future leaders.
- The contribution is noteworthy and innovative.
- The nominee can demonstrate positive change within the aging-services organization.

Eligibility:

- Member organizations or individuals whose organizations are LeadingAge Texas members are eligible for this award.

*Submit nominations to the LeadingAge national awards program in February 2019.

EXCELLENCE IN ADVOCACY *

Individual • Organization/Group

The Excellence in Advocacy award recognizes an individual or organization for advocating for aging services at the local, state or national level.

- Nominee has advocated and actively encouraged others to advocate on aging-services issues with local, state or national policy makers and/or the media.
- Nominee has provided support and information on strategies that individuals can use to advocate for aging issues.
- Nominee has organized other persons or groups to advocate for positive change.

Eligibility:

- Member organizations or individuals whose organizations are LeadingAge Texas members are eligible for this award.

*Submit nominations to the LeadingAge national awards program in February 2019.

EXCELLENCE IN COMMUNITY SERVICE

Organization/Group

The Excellence in Community Service Award recognizes the achievement of an organization that has demonstrated exceptional social accountability. It honors a commitment by volunteers, leadership, and staff to meet community needs as part of the organization's broader non-profit mission.

- Effective implementation of a program of outreach serving a meaningful and recognized need beyond the walls of the organization.
- A creative, innovative and effective approach to solving a recognized problem within the greater community.
- Cumulative impact on the community over a prolonged period of time reflecting a history of compassionate response to the needs of the community.
- Deliberate extension of the organizational mission as an outreach to underserved individuals or groups.
- An exceptional instance or a history of philanthropy targeted to underserved populations and/or a recognized community need.

Eligibility:

- Organizations who are LeadingAge Texas members are eligible for this award.

EXCELLENCE IN NOT-FOR-PROFIT LEADERSHIP

Organization/Group

The Excellence in Not-For-Profit Leadership award recognizes organizations that are models of excellence in not-for-profit leadership and exemplify to the highest degree the seven key attributes that, according to Johns Hopkins University research, characterize high-performing nonprofits and distinguish the sector from any other. The seven attributes are: Productive, Empowering, Effective, Enriching, Reliable, Responsive and Caring.*

- The nominated organization exemplifies not-for-profit leadership and the key attributes above to a degree worthy of state recognition.
- The nominee advances principles of responsible stewardship, financial integrity and philanthropy.
- The nominee engages in integrated strategic planning in collaboration with key stakeholders to ensure the organization's future success in meeting community needs.
- The nominee has fostered growth and change through understanding the aging-services environment.
- The nominee's accomplishments over time demonstrate significant contributions to the well-being of persons served.

*See What Do Nonprofits Stand For? Renewing the Nonprofit Value Commitment for John Hopkins' definitions of each of these attributes and ways high-performing nonprofits exhibit them.

Eligibility:

- Organizations who are LeadingAge Texas members are eligible for this award.

*Submit nominations to the LeadingAge national awards program in February 2019.

EXCELLENCE IN RESEARCH AND EDUCATION

Individual • Organization/Group

The Excellence in Research and Education award recognizes an individual or organizations ongoing commitment to quality aging services through evidence-based research and dissemination of research findings through internal and external shared learning opportunities.

- Nominee demonstrates commitment to giving back to the field by sharing research findings and innovative practices with peers.
- Nominee creates opportunities for professionals and organizations to learn from one another.
- Nominee utilizes continuing education to encourage creativity and innovation in care and services.

Eligibility:

- Member organizations or individuals whose organizations are LeadingAge Texas members are eligible for this award.

*Submit nominations to the LeadingAge national awards program in February 2019.

EXCELLENCE IN THE WORKPLACE

Organization/Group

The Excellence in the Workplace award recognizes organizations that demonstrate effectiveness in fostering and advancing a healthy workplace culture and an environment that promotes the recruitment, retention, and development of staff at all levels of the organization.

- Nominee demonstrates, in policy and practice, that investing in the staff and workplace environment are critical to the delivery of quality care, and services.
- Nominee demonstrates innovation in workforce development, policies, and practices.
- Nominee ensures that all levels of staff obtain training.
- Nominee values and promotes diversity in the workforce.
- Nominee regularly assesses staff satisfaction and acts on the results.
- Nominee shows noteworthy achievement in staff retention, as evidenced by longevity and professional growth of employees.

Eligibility:

- Organizations who are LeadingAge Texas members are eligible for this award.

*Submit nominations to the LeadingAge national awards program in February 2019.

INSPIRATIONAL SENIOR TEXAN

Individual • Organization/Group (Special category)

The Inspirational Senior Texan award recognizes individual or groups of senior citizens who make outstanding contributions by going above and beyond, all while inspiring others with their actions.

- Nominee demonstrates exceptional commitment through volunteer service.
- Nominees' actions enhance and enrich the lives of others.
- The nominee promotes the mission and goals of the organization they serve.

Eligibility:

- Nominations may be a group or individual whose contributions enhance the mission of a LeadingAge Texas member and those they serve.
- Individual or group nominees should be a resident or resident group of a member community.

INNOVATION IN CARE AND SERVICES

Organization/Group

The Innovation in Care and Services award recognizes organizations for creating programs and services that are models of innovation and excellence and that contribute significantly to the quality of life of the individuals served.

- The nominee's philosophy and operations foster innovative thinking and openness to change.
- The nominee shows willingness to embrace new ideas, take risks and honestly test results.
- The nominee demonstrates an openness to collaboration and continuous learning
- The innovation has created a new reality and/or positive benefit for the organization and those it serves.
- The innovation has potential for application to the needs of other aging-services organizations.

Eligibility:

- Organizations who are LeadingAge Texas members are eligible for this award.

*Submit nominations to the LeadingAge national awards program in February 2019.

PUBLIC TRUST*

Individual • Organization/Group

The Public Trust Award recognizes an individual or organization that has advanced public trust and confidence in aging services through public service, collaboration, media or other efforts to educate consumers and help them make informed choices.

- Nominee has furthered public understanding of the continuum of aging services and support for positive change.
- Nominee conveys information to consumers and/or policymakers about quality of care and quality of life in aging services.
- Nomination includes breadth and scope of public impact and community benefit.

Eligibility:

- Member organizations or individuals whose organizations are LeadingAge Texas members are eligible for this award.

*Submit nominations to the LeadingAge national awards program in February 2019.

VOLUNTEER OF THE YEAR

Individual • Organization/Group

This award honors volunteers whose commitment and dedication enhance and enrich the quality of life for seniors and their communities.

- Nominee demonstrates exceptional commitment to older adults through volunteer service.
- Nominees' actions enhance and enrich the lives of seniors.
- The nominee promotes the mission and goals of the organization they serve.

Eligibility:

- Nominations may be a group or individual whose contributions enhance the mission of a LeadingAge Texas member and those they serve.
- Individual Nominees should not be a resident of a member community.
 - Submit resident submissions for the Inspirational Senior Texan Award.