

NOTE: Information is changing rapidly related to COVID-19.
This recap is to serve as general information exchange only.

LeadingAge Texas staff provided a brief update on what we are doing to continue to support and equip members. LeadingAge Texas will:

- Post updates and information our COVID-19 Resources page
- Convene a Weekly Provider Member COVID-19 Discussion Call, each Tuesday at 1 pm CT, as a place for members to share and learn & will schedule additional calls as needed
- Email out emergent updates and information as they become available
- Continue to be in contact daily with the Texas Department of Health and other state level stakeholders; Communicate on behalf of members' best interests i.e., Statement on Dallas County Judge Clay Jenkins' Order regarding Long Term Care Facilities by LeadingAge Texas 03.31.20
- Assist in pairing job seekers with member communities via the LeadingAge Texas Workforce Network: Connecting Not-for-Profit Aging Services Providers with Job Seekers; Encourage members to utilize the free Career Resource Center for job listings
- Post and encourage member's to share their achievements and resilience in this time with #LATXStrong on social media platforms

Stuart Dupuy, Principal, MBF Agency—

- MBF Agency - Staffing company in childcare; discussed solutions for providing childcare to your workers
- Reviewed the HHSC guidelines specific to on-site daycare; pop-up daycare would be possible within a community
- Reviewed the announcement: Governor Abbott Care.com Initiative to Increase In-Home Child Care Access For Frontline Workers
- Childcare workers/sitters are currently under the cloth mask rule

Alyse Meyer, VP of Advocacy, LeadingAge Texas —

- Recommended members subscribe to HHSC Gov Delivery system for the most up to date information and resources
- Quality incentive payment program for 2020 – the state has increased the funding pool and will be focusing on infection control; if you are participating in QIPP, large fiscal increase for 2021/2022
