OVERVIEW:
The webinar presenters will review the current regulatory environment and highlight some of the 340B innovations that entities may want to consider in the future. We recognize the challenges associated with COVID-19 that organizations are currently facing in the support of their patients. This webinar will provide valuable regulatory and contract pharmacy insights for your entity and compliantly heighten the value of 340B savings.

TOPICS TO BE COVERED:
• Update on the current regulatory environment;
• Considerations when expanding contract pharmacy programs;
• How Advanced Claims Capture can heighten the value of 340B programs; and
• How 340B Discount Cards for the uninsured help with readmissions.

MEET YOUR FACULTY:
Jacqueline Artinger, Esq.
Vice President, Regulatory Affairs & Compliance, SUNRx
Jacqueline “Jackie” Artinger brings more than 35 years of combined experience to SUNRx from her practice as a technician in clinical and outpatient pharmacy settings and as an attorney dedicated solely to the area of healthcare law. During her 10+ years at SUNRx’s parent company, MedImpact Healthcare Systems, Inc., Artinger’s work included being the dedicated legal counsel for SUNRx. She has been a member of the State Bar of California since 1998, and has a law degree from Western State University College of Law (with distinction) and an Associate Degree in Pharmacy Technology from Orange Coast College. She is a published author and has provided training on healthcare issues both on local and national levels.
