YOUR LEADERSHIP AND LEGACY
Three Areas will Define Your Life

1. Stewardship
2. Relationships
3. Leadership
Stewardship

• Faithfulness
• How you oversee duties
• How you conduct your affairs
Relationships

• Growing, developing and cultivating long-term relationships

• Communication, communication, communication
Leadership

• Character
• Competency
• Influence
“There are GREAT WORLD LEADERS but no Great World Managers!”
LEADERSHIP
Pitfalls & Priorities
Pit-fall (pit’fôl’), n.

any concealed danger or trap for an unwary person
PITFALLS

1. Doubt

• Negative/limited thinking

→ Worry/Fear
2. Working and Living in the PAST
Three Traps that keep us from CHANGING

• Believing that Yesterday’s solutions will resolve today’s problems
• Assuming present trends will continue
• Neglecting the opportunities/ possibilities offered by future change!
3. Compromising your INTEGRITY
“Leaders set the values, the standards, the ethics of an organization. They either lead or they mislead.”

-Peter Drucker
• There is no such thing as business ethics.

• Value character more than success.

• Your integrity will always be remembered longer than your product or service.
PRIORITIES IN YOUR LEADERSHIP
PRIORITIES

1. Protect, nourish and grow your PASSION
Two Enemies of PASSION

• Fatigue
• Over-scheduling
• Time Management
• Priority Management
• Attention Management
2. YOUR MINDSET

Mindset effects everything in life

Mindset is a choice

ATTITUDE
Positive mental attitude is determined by YOU, not others.
EFFECTIVE/ELITE MINDSET

- Calm
- Clear
- Confident
3. Your Gifts and Talents are to SERVE others
To serve is to lead.
Have FUN!
The average four-year-old laughs or smiles 400 times a day. That number drops to 15 times a day by the time people reach 35.
Let’s have fun, baby!

• Every time you have a good hearty laugh, your burn 3.5 calories!

• Laughter releases the same endorphins you get from strenuous exercise!

• Laughter dispels tension and makes people feel good about themselves.
It’s TIME for ACTION!
