CONGRATS, JOHN!

The League's newest staff member was sworn in today as a Kansas attorney.

John Goodyear, Staff Attorney, was a former League extern and graduated from Washburn Law School in May. John joins our team of municipal law legal staff along with General Counsel Amanda Stanley and Staff Attorney Deborah Barnes.

Congratulations John on passing the bar and we look forward to the great work you will do on behalf of Kansas cities in the future!

ADVANCE CONFERENCE REGISTRATION ENDS TODAY!

Today is the last day to register for the League Annual Conference at the advance pricing rate. After today, the full conference rate will increase. We don't want you to miss out on this great opportunity for local government officials - staff and elected alike.

Do you find it hard to manage competing funding priorities in your community? Do you get bogged down; knowing that productivity of your city can be improved but you just don't know how? Have you ever struggled to find balance between your public service work and your personal life? This year's League Annual Conference is for you!

This October 12-14, join the League and hundreds of local government officials in Overland Park to address these issues and other questions facing Kansas local government leaders.

The League encourages officials from all member cities to participate in our organization and to consider serving on the Governing Body. Being part of the Governing Body is an excellent way to shape the future development of your organization. See full nominating details in the August/September 2019 Kansas Government Journal.

DEADLINE NEXT WEEK FOR COUNCIL ON FITNESS AWARDS

The Governor's Council on Fitness is now accepting nominations for its annual Kansas Health Champion Awards. Awards are given to individuals and organizations that make an exceptional effort to model, encourage, and promote health and fitness in Kansas. The deadline for nominations is September 30.

Award recipients will be recognized at the Community Health Promotion Summit on January 30 in Wichita. For more information and to submit a nomination, go to www.getactivekansas.org and click on the nomination form link.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT REPRESENTED ON GOVERNOR'S TAX REFORM COUNCIL

The Governor's Tax Reform Council has representation from make stakeholders in Kansas. The League is represented by City of Olathe Assistant City Manager Susan Sherman. The Tax Reform Council met this past week for the first time. The Council's agenda and information can be found on-line at the Governor's website. Thank you Susan for serving on this committee and sharing your expertise!
