Candidate Survey Responses Now Available

The League of Kansas Municipalities conducts the Candidate Questionnaire biennially to provide our members with information on each responding participant leading up to primary elections in August and general elections in November. This link will allow members of the League to explore the most recent candidate questionnaire and this link will allow you to see the responses received so far from Kansas Legislature Candidates.

If you're interested in finding out what House or Senate districts your city and/ or your personal address is located in, please use the Open States website to confirm. If you have questions about these questionnaires, please contact Wendi Stark.

2022 League Legislative Dinners Dates & Locations

There are still a few more Legislative Dinner locations happening next week – it's not too late to register! These informative sessions will feature a discussion of the League's 2023 Legislative Priorities for our members.

Dinner registration starts at 5:30 p.m., with dinner served at 6:00 p.m. Two locations next week are hosting a lunch instead of the traditional dinner. For these locations, registration will begin at 11:30 a.m. with lunch served at noon.

Written cancellations must be made prior to the listed RSVP date for each meeting, or the participant will be responsible for payment. Cancellations by phone will not be accepted, please email Rynae Redd

Click on your preferred location to access the registration page. Two lunch options have been added to the schedule this year in addition to traditional dinner events.

Wednesday, November 2: Columbus (City Officials, $14 per person)
Thursday, November 3: Wichita [lunch] (City Officials, $32 per person)
Thursday, November 3: Merriam [lunch] (City Officials, $22 per person)
Thursday, November 3: Baldwin City (City Officials, $18 per person)

If you are a legislator needing to RSVP, please do so here.

Home Loan Guarantee for Rural Kansas: Listening Sessions for Public Comment

The Kansas Housing Resources Corporation (KHRC) is conducting an overview of the upcoming Home Loan Guarantee for Rural Kansas (HLG) and an opportunity to provide public comment on Monday, November 14, 1:00-2:00pm (Register Now). The HLG program helps lenders cover the gap between the cost of building or rehabilitating a rural Kansas home and its appraised value. HLG will cover the portion of the loan that exceeds 80% - 125% of the appraised home value, up to $100,000 per home.
