About Jeremy Klibert

Faulk & Winkler welcomed Jeremy to the firm in 2005. As a partner in Tax Services, he is responsible for providing tax return review, tax research, tax planning, and consulting services for the firm. Klibert works with a wide range of clients and focuses his efforts on serving high net-worth individuals, nonprofit organizations and closely held small businesses.

Before joining Faulk & Winkler, Klibert worked at SMG-Louisiana Superdome as a staff accountant and as a junior accountant for a Lafayette CPA firm. Klibert's background and experience has been instrumental in his ability to help clients achieve their long-term goals.

Klibert grew up in Garyville and currently resides in Geismar, Louisiana with his wife, Liz and their son Jackson. Outside of the office, he can be found attending a Louisiana State University football game, a live concert or playing trivia games. Klibert also enjoys cooking.
