About Barry Erwin

Barry Erwin is a Louisiana native who serves as President of the Council for A Better Louisiana (CABL). CABL is a statewide, nonprofit membership organization that works on issues that impact the quality of life in Louisiana. CABL is involved in numerous public policy issues at the state level, including education, workforce development, state fiscal policies and governmental ethics.

The organization also operates the widely recognized Leadership Louisiana program, which now boasts an alumni base of more than 1,000 state and community leaders from across Louisiana. Erwin began doing consulting work for CABL in 1995. He became President in 2001.

Erwin worked on numerous public affairs projects prior to joining CABL on issues such as education, health care and the judiciary. He spent 15 years as a television journalist and was a capitol correspondent for WBRZ-TV. His work as a journalist has garnered state, regional, and national awards.

Erwin graduated from Louisiana Tech University in 1979 with a bachelor's degree in journalism. He is active in the Baton Rouge community and has served on the Board of Directors of Baton Rouge Youth and is Past President of the ARC of Baton Rouge.
