The Hidden Costs of Sexual Harassment: Radical Fixes for a Real Problem

Thea Ducrow, PhD

Dr. Thea Ducrow started her career delivering sexual harassment prevention training in the 1990's, when the need was less obvious. She worked as an assistant professor with Louisiana State University (LSU) Health Sciences Center before leaving to pursue consulting and speaking full-time. Her work over the past 20 years includes bringing proven business policies, procedures, and practices to organizations. In September 2018, she released the short, succinct book "Sexual Harassment Explained: How to Save Money and Increase Profits."

This program will qualify for 1.0 credit hours for CAE certification (Domain 3) and CMP certification (Domain J).
