Ipswich Open Space Manager

Salary/Compensation: Competitive hourly range of $26-31/hour; compensation depends on qualifications.

Location of position: Ipswich, MA

Employer: Town of Ipswich

Work schedule: part-time, non-benefited, flexible hours

General Job description: Under general supervision of the Director of Planning & Development, and in collaboration with the Open Space Steward, this position oversees the Town’s open space initiatives, including negotiating land conservation transactions and working closely with boards, committees, and planning staff on matters that involve open space interests.

Qualifications: Candidates should have bachelor’s degree, at least three years of experience with land acquisition and conservation, possess strong organizational & communication skills, the ability to manage multiple projects & tasks, communicate with constituents effectively, knowledge of GIS, and excellent computer skills.

Deadline to apply: open until filled

For more information and the complete job description, visit the Ipswich town website: https://ipswichma.gov/Jobs.aspx. Contact Director of Planning Ethan Parsons at ethanp@ipswichma.gov with any questions.