

Member of the Month

Gary Janadia

The MACOMB BAR Member of the Month program recognizes members for their passion for the profession of law and highlights achievements and milestones.

Gary Janadia has been practicing law with his brother Michael since 1994. His father, a retired Detroit police officer, has been their office manager and Gary feels blessed to get to work with his brother and father each day. Gary became a lawyer because he understood that people make mistakes and they can overcome and learn from those mistakes to better themselves. He is proud to say that throughout his career he and his brother have been successful in improving the lives of others and this notion is what keeps him practicing law.

Gary has been a long time member of the Macomb County Bar Association and in fact, Macomb County is his favorite place to practice law. "The judges are very fair, thoughtful and well-reasoned. From the standpoint of the bar, the positive relationships between our colleagues in Macomb County is second to none in this state. Every day you are surrounded by attorneys who are diligent, cordial and professional."

Gary is also a member of the Polish American Legal Society. Notably, Gary and Michael were recognized by the Polish American Citizens for Equality in receiving the Polish Pride Award. They also received the Persons of the Year awards from the Original New Grace Baptist Church for both their legal and civic contributions to the city of Detroit.

When Gary is not in court, you can find him on the golf course. He also bowls and plays softball for St. Peter Lutheran. Gary is currently coaching bowling at St. Isaac Jogues Catholic School. When he can get away, he travels to his cottage in Canada.

Gary has a list of lawyers he'd like to thank for helping make him the attorney he is today. J.B. Bieske who gave him his first office free. Jerry Marsh and Ron Hakim who taught him how to successfully operate a firm. Judges William Hathaway, John Perry, Kathleen Jansen and Leona Lloyd who have been his mentors and friends. And finally his current office mate, William Jurczak who Gary sees as the best of the young lawyers.
