She represents people in all areas of the law from criminal to family and has handled cases all over the state. She also devotes her time to pro bono cases every year. She graduated from Western Michigan University Cooley Law School and wanted to become a lawyer to help people.

Her passion carries over into representing her profession. She currently serves as a Regional Representative for the Women Lawyers Association and as a Council Member for the Young Lawyers

Section for the State Bar of Michigan. She is also an active member of the Macomb County Bar Association and CDAM.

When Elisha isn't busy running from court to court in Macomb County, she has her hands full raising 3 children that she and her husband have welcomed into their home. She serves on the PTO at the kids' school. She spends her limited free time reading or shopping.

An exciting accomplishment for Elisha, she is being sworn in this October to the United States Supreme Court! The MCBA is proud to recognize Elisha as our member of the month!
