

Member of the Month

Marissa Kulcsar

The MACOMB BAR Member of the Month program recognizes members for their passion for the profession of law and highlights achievements and milestones.

Marissa Kulcsar is a young, energetic, dynamic attorney who isn't afraid to stand up for her clients in court. She graduated magna cum laude from Cooley Law School in 2015 and primarily practices criminal defense from her office in Clinton Township. She clerked for Judge Mark Switalski in the summer of 2015 and learned a great deal from him. She is a zealot advocate for her clients and in fact, in her tenure as a criminal defense attorney, she has already conducted over 20 trials.

She is passionate about indigent defense and ensuring that all people are represented equally. She became an attorney and chose criminal defense because she wanted to be a voice and a strong advocate for those who are not always able to advocate for themselves.

She always makes sure when she is representing someone they are seen as much more than just a criminal defendant she makes sure the person is seen and heard as well.

She is always friendly and willing to help other attorneys. She regularly attends the Criminal Law think tanks to discuss other ideas and strategies with her fellow defense counsel.

Outside of her law practice, she spends her free time volunteering with veterans organizations including the American Legion. She also has two adorable dogs, Bruno and Bonnie. If you don't see her in the courtroom, hopefully she is somewhere warm and exotic, as she enjoys travelling as well.
