DISCLAIMERS

- If you're working on your 2018 CLE credits, the Board of Overseers will not accept self-study credit for the 2018 reporting year from materials dated prior to January 1, 2016.

For the reporting year 2018: Ethics credits may continue to be earned and reported to the Board of Overseers of the Bar throughout the 2018 reporting period. Please contact the Board of Overseers of the Bar at (207) 623-1121 or Susan Adams (sadams@mebaroverseers.org) if you have questions about CLE requirements or reporting.

- If you're working on your 2019 CLE credits, the Board of Overseers will not accept self-study credit for the 2019 reporting year from materials dated prior to January 1, 2017.

For the reporting year 2019: Ethics credits can no longer be earned through self-study. Even if a title or topic mentions ethics or program materials contain information about ethics, the amendments to Maine Bar Rule 5(a) includes the requirement that attorneys must obtain the required professionalism credit in "live" format and specifies that no more than five credit hours per reporting period may be earned from self-study.
