00:14:20 Steven Mogul: Could you ask why some judges are scheduling family law status/case management conference in-person rather than by telephone, given the SJC's comment strongly preferring that matters be scheduled remotely.

00:17:25 Fred Bopp: Do judges have the discretion to schedule small claims matters for in person hearings during Phase 4?

00:17:56 Angela Armstrong: The Google Meet, currently being used by the Courts has on-screen closed captions. Will Zoom also have closed captioning available?

00:20:57 Angela Armstrong: Another question: does the District Court have any suggestions on when municipal practitioners should begin filing Rule 80K land use violation cases, particularly as they require an initial appearance hearing
