

00:16:00 12077: I just spoke this a.m. with a local bank and I would concur - there was an immediate concern re the protocol and the only limitation the bank discussed this a.m. was maintaining a distance. I would also note that I applied and received an "essential business" determination letter from Me Economic Dev. It was a very straightforward process and I am glad to have the letter.

00:17:40 Martin Womer: A client of mine arranged with her local bank to witness and notarize her will through the drive-up window of the bank.
