MAPERS BEVERAGE POLICY

Alcoholic beverages are a part of many MAPERS events. An individual's decision to partake is a matter of personal choice and is neither encouraged nor discouraged by the association. Reasonable and appropriate measures are taken by MAPERS to ensure that consumption occurs in a safe and responsible manner.

MAPERS creates opportunities for its members to engage in business with each other. The association also provides opportunities for friends and colleagues to network and socialize. Irresponsible drinking could undermine these opportunities. All members are expected to exercise restraint and good judgment in their consumption of alcohol at MAPERS events.

HOSPITALITY SUITES

Room rate is $341 per night (double occupancy). Sponsoring member will provide their own food, beverage, entertainment, activity, etc. Food and beverages may be brought in from outside the resort or you may contract through the hotel directly for your needs. Please contact the MAPERS office to reserve your space.
