Alternative Veterinary Services is seeking a VETERINARIAN. We are a natural health care provider for pets and we have a good volume practice with a large client base. We are looking for a person who wants to help animals naturally. We are busy and are looking for a practitioner who would like to practice complementary medicine with us and eventually take over the practice when we are ready to retire. We practice Traditional Chinese Medicine (Acupuncture and Chinese Herbal Medicine), Nutrition for diet formulation and for treatment (using Nutrition Response Testing), GAPS diet therapy and Homeopathy. Chiropractic is also offered here. We prefer that our clients have routine bloodwork, diagnostics and surgeries performed at a full-service veterinary hospital where they have conventional treatments outlined for them. Clients then are able to make an informed choice of conventional, complementary or a combination of the two for their animals. You are welcome to visit the practice and, if you are interested in nutrition, we can help you achieve that certification. Please contact Dr. Martha Lindsay at 978-683-5775 and leave your name, contact phone numbers and best times for evenings, days and weekends to reach you. You are welcome to visit the practice and, if you are interested in learning about nutrition, we can help you achieve that.
