

Faust “Butch” Ruggiero - Past President

Special Events Tent & Party Rental

Faust began in this industry in 1985 as a jack of all trades. Owner, grunt, financial officer, chair washer, you name it, he did it. This is probably why he considers himself an expert in knowing people. “While we, of course, have the necessary knowledge to erect all the equipment necessary for our work, so does everyone else.” He has a sixth sense for people including customers as well as employees. He tries to feel their needs and tries to satisfy the ones that he is able to satisfy. Faust regards himself a problem solver above anything else. With a IFAI for Best Commercial tenting awarded to him a few years ago, Faust still considers his company’s most valuable contribution to the industry on setting the standards for quality in the mid 80’s and early 90’s for quality tenting in their market. They owned the first white tents Anchor sold in PA, and were the first to use tarps under their tents. They set the standard for “clean”
