

George Smith - President

Mahaffey Fabric Structures

George landed in the tent rental industry in 1994 as a contract tent installer. After years of experience, George became an expert in large clearspan tenting and aspires to be the best tent guy in North America. He has served as President of the IFAI TRD and has received a number of industry awards including Dale Carnegie Sales Talk Champion.

