

Ian Sherwood – Director

Tents Unlimited

Ian Sherwood began his career in the Tent and Event Rental business in 2002 working a summer job as a tent installer for Tents Unlimited. After a short stint working at VT Tent Company he returned to Connecticut and Tents Unlimited in 2006 and became a Field Supervisor. In 2012 his wife Brittany and he were able to purchase the company he was working for and they have been a great husband and wife team ever since. With Brittany's incredible customer service and organizational skills combined with Ian's now 15 years of experience in the industry they are gaining ground as one of the premier event rental companies in the state of CT. Ian is an excited new member to the MATRA board and looks forward to serving the industry for years to come.

