

Keith Eismann – Director

Keder Solutions

Keith has been around tents for more than half of his life. Never scared to get his hands dirty, he began his career as a tent installer. Through hard work and perseverance, he worked his way to VP of a multi-million-dollar rental/manufacturing company with over 500 employees. From backyard barbecues to producing the 2010 Winter Olympics in Vancouver, his experience is wide. He now is Vice President of Keder Solutions, a manufacturer that provides Keder, Fabric and Accessories to the Tent & Structure Industry and others such as; Awning, Marine and Sign, Banner & Printing.
