

Kenny Puff – Vice President

Party Line Rentals

Kenny's start in the rental industry was in 1983 as a yardman AND Vice President of his company. His connection to both the operational and financial management of a rental company has made him an expert in maximizing profitability and workflow. His passion for efficiency has inspired him to help other rental companies.

