

Melani Kodikian – Secretary

A to Z Party Rental

Melani, from A to Z Party Rental has worked in the rental industry since she was old enough to lick stamps and clean chairs. Her official introduction was working at home on special projects and in the office assisting the bookkeeper. After years of experience, earning her CERP and serving on multiple committees within the industry, she has built supporting and friendly relationships with her competitors. She also values input from her staff, her peers and competitors.

Fun Facts about Melani: she has traveled to 17 different countries and Armenian was her first language
