MAAS Announces 2018-2019 Board Members and Officers

January 9 (Lansing) – The Michigan Association of Ambulance Services (MAAS), the principal resource and advocate for ambulance services in Michigan, today announced its Board of Directors and Officers for 2018-19:

- Kolby Miller, Medstar Ambulance (President)
- Jack Fisher, Medic 1 Ambulance (President-Elect)
- David Curtis, Superior Air-Ground Ambulance (Secretary)
- Mark Meijer, Life EMS Ambulance (Treasurer)
- Jeff Boyd, Livingston County EMS (Region 1)
- Bill Grubb, Star EMS (Region 2N)
- Rick Oziemski, Concord EMS (Region 2S)
- Terrye Nicholls, DMCare Express (Region 3)
- Ron Slagell, LifeCare Ambulance (Region 5)
- Tom Schmiedeknecht, Professional Med Team, Inc. (Region 6)
- Gary Wadaga, Bay Ambulance (Region 8)
- Denise Landis, UM Survival Flight (Region 9)
- Dale Berry, Emergent Health Partners (Past President)

Kolby Miller moves from the President-Elect position to the President for 2018-19 and will be joined by Jack Fisher President-Elect. David Curtis, who was re-elected to another term on the Board, will serve as Secretary and Mark Meijer will serve as Treasurer. Outgoing President, Dale Berry, will continue to serve as Past President.

“I am honored to have the privilege to serve as the MAAS board president for the next two years. I follow in the path of many great leaders who have served in this role before me and will continue to strive to maintain focus of our mission as an organization,” stated Kolby Miller, newly elected Board President. “I look forward to the continued work in the coming years with this great organization that will make a difference in ambulance service in our State.”

The MAAS Board was elected at its annual meeting on December 15, 2017. In addition to its business meeting, MAAS provided the opportunity for ambulance agency leaders to engage with legislative and regulatory leaders.
