At the age of 36, Mike Abrashoff took command of the worst-performing ship in the Navy's Pacific Fleet, the USS Benfold. The challenges aboard this underachieving destroyer were staggering, with extremely low morale and the highest turnover rate in the Navy. Twelve months later it was the best ship in the entire Navy... using the same crew. How?

The transformation began with Abrashoff working to see the ship through the eyes of his crew and learning to lead differently. Mike's New York Times best selling book "It's Your Ship" details his system of beliefs that he calls the leadership roadmap: a process of re-imagining leadership and replacing "command and control" with "commitment and cohesion." By engaging the hearts, minds, and loyalties of his sailors, he achieved a level of operational success never before seen in the Navy.
