Membership Categories:

Membership is considered to be as follows in Article II of the MACP Constitution.

SECTION 1. Classes of Membership: The membership of the Association shall be classified and defined as follows: Active-Voting, Active, Associate, Life, Sustaining and Supporting Member.

Active Voting Members $115.00 Annually

Any non-elected full time salaried chief criminal law enforcement officer of any duly constituted enforcement agency; the heads of other governmental security agencies; the heads of quasi-governmental police or security agencies who are certified by the Michigan Law Enforcement Officers Training Council, in the State of Michigan is eligible for Active-Voting membership. Provided that members who held Active membership in this Association as of January 30, 1970, but who may not qualify under this Article, may continue to renew such current membership as Active-Voting members until they forfeit same under Sections 4, 5, or 6 of this Article.

Active Members $100.00 Annually

Any person, not eligible for Active-Voting membership, but qualified by training and experience in police or other law enforcement activity, or by other professional attainments in police science or administration, or criminal justice education, shall be eligible for Active membership, subject to the following provisions:

Any member of any duly constituted law enforcement agency shall require the recommendations of the member chief of the agency. Upon retirement or resignation from active police service, Active-Voting members shall be transferred to the Active membership class. Active members shall have all the privileges of Acting-Voting members, except that of holding office or amending the Constitution or By-Laws. The provisions of section 1b (2) shall not apply to members who held Active membership in this Association as of January 30, 1970, on their retirement from active police service.

Associate Members $115.00 Annually

Any reputable person, not eligible for Active-Voting or Active membership, but qualified by interest, business liaison or association with law enforcement, shall be eligible for Associate membership in this Association. Associate members shall have all the privileges of Active membership. Members holding Associate membership in the Association, as of the date of the adoption of this amendment, shall be referred to and be determined by the Board of Directors.

Supporting Members $500.00 Annually:

Supporting membership is open to any vendor or business. Supporting members benefits are:

- $50.00 discount per conference;
- Electronic database sent to you twice a year (January and July);
- Listing in the MACP magazine as "Supporter of MACP";
- Listing in the online Supporting Members Buyer's Guide;
