

The Municipal Information Systems Association, Ontario (MISA Ontario) hosted the 2019 InfoSec Conference from October 21 -23 at Casino Rama. Here are some highlights.

Breakout Sessions: Municipal IT professionals, at all levels, heard directly from municipal peers and security experts. Connections and future collaborations were made.

Check out the articles covered by IT World Canada.

CCTX lowers fees so public sector agencies can join threat exchange

Ransomware now stealing data, warns Ontario cybercop

Allow municipalities to share their IT product security assessments, urges InfoSec pro

The Stats So Far – What You Had to Say

- 93% of you felt the conference program was good or excellent
- 92% of you felt the value they received of attending the conference was good or excellent.
- 85% of you said the networking activities were good or excellent Bonus
- BONUS: 73% of you came to learn how other municipalities have dealt with business requirement or security issue.
- Thank you to our sponsors, exhibitors, speakers & you for making this another successful conference!

What's Next? Keep the Conversation Going!

- You said you wanted to contribute more to the MISA Online Community, share resources and update your Infobase profiles. That's fantastic!
Stay tuned to future communications on how you can get involved.

Last But Not Least!

A huge shout out to the City of Barrie volunteers who provided the breakout session laptops and managed our registration desk, we could not have done it without you!

Save the Date: October 26 -28, 2020 in Guelph, Ontario