

New Convenience Service Arrives at [Credit Union]

Have you heard? [Credit Union] is now a part of the CO-OP Shared Branching Network. And that means more convenience for you.

Over 1,700 credit unions participate in the shared branching network, making more than 5,000 branches available for you – in all 50 states. You can walk into any of them and access your [Credit Union] account. Make a deposit, a withdrawal, transfer funds, or make a loan payment. Some branches offer additional services such as cashier or teller checks, money orders, or gift cards.

Finding a shared branch is easy. Just visit our website and click the link for Shared Branching Locations.* Enter your address and click Search. The locations nearest you will display in order of distance.

For more information about shared branching or any of our other convenient services, contact [Contact Information].
