

New Convenient Service Arrives at [CREDIT UNION NAME]!

Have you heard the latest in member convenience at [CREDIT UNION NAME]? With access to over [5,000] locations, [CREDIT UNION NAME] has joined forces with other credit unions in states from New York to Washington, Florida to California, who are offering members more convenience by sharing locations. Providing members unparalleled convenience is now made possible with shared branching.

Shared branching gives you the personal service you've come to expect from [CREDIT UNION NAME], whether you're across town or 1,000 miles away from home. And best of all, you can conduct your credit union business with real people and not just an ATM when you're away from home.

Here's How Shared Branching Works:

Look for the Shared Branch logo!

Credit unions participating in shared branching proudly display the logo on outdoor signage for members to easily identify.

When you walk into participating credit union locations [a Shared Branch] be prepared to provide the member service representative with your credit union's name, account number, valid Government Issued ID, and the last four digits of your social security number. Within seconds, the Shared Branch's member service representative will link automatically to your account here at [CREDIT UNION NAME] and you can conduct deposits, withdrawals, transfers, or loan payments. It's simple and easy!

Want to find convenient locations? Visit www.co-opsharedbranch.org, call 1-888-SITE-CO-OP, or contact a [CREDIT UNION NAME] representative at [CREDIT UNION PHONE NUMBER].

The CO-OP Shared Branch network is perfect when you're traveling for business or pleasure, have kids or parents out-of-state that need assistance, or if you are relocating. Your credit union is still around the corner. Many locations offer extended evening and weekend hours as well.
