Minnesota Multitypes with $1.3 million in funding for FY2014 were able to...

- 252 newsletters out to 76,410 people
- We also tweeted, blogged, emailed 4,079 times
- We had 287,146 web visits with 1,523,182 page views

Build & Sustain Relationships Between & Among Libraries

- 129 workshops for 12,331 contact hours
- 4,284 hours helping 173 people finish 23 Mobile Things
- $70,760 to support 151 scholarships
- 1,257 attendees at our literacy events

Develop Librarians & Staff Professionally

- 233 consultations for improved services
- $140,263 grants for improved services
- 108,891 views of MN Jobline
- 176 non-public library online catalog members

Improve Library Services

- 1,257 attendees at our literacy events
With a funding increase, we can restore & expand multitype services...

- Replicate successful programs to provide more professional opportunities statewide
- Provide staff with expertise to escalate their work with K-12 media specialists
- Restore and increase the number of scholarships and grant programs
- Help para-professionals operating school libraries better understand their roles within the schools
- Replicate successful programs to provide more professional opportunities statewide
- Provide staff with expertise to escalate their work with K-12 media specialists
- Restore and increase the number of scholarships and grant programs
- Help para-professionals operating school libraries better understand their roles within the schools
- Leverage state investment in ELM with increased training for media specialists and teachers
- Increase training opportunities on new technologies for staff in libraries of all types
- Invest in ELM with increased training for media specialists and teachers
- Increase training opportunities on new technologies for staff in libraries of all types
- Encourage collaboration among all types of libraries to share resources and knowledge
- Improve teachers’ knowledge and use of library resources with training programs that support teachers for History Day, STEM and other subject-based training or special projects
- Encourage collaboration among all types of libraries to share resources and knowledge
- Improve teachers’ knowledge and use of library resources with training programs that support teachers for History Day, STEM and other subject-based training or special projects
- Investigate college readiness programs between K12 School Media Specialists and Academic Librarians
- Increase training opportunities on new technologies for staff in libraries of all types
- Investigate college readiness programs between K12 School Media Specialists and Academic Librarians
- Increase training opportunities on new technologies for staff in libraries of all types
- Services are developed and provided based on each region’s identified needs. Not all services offered in all regions.
- Services are developed and provided based on each region’s identified needs. Not all services offered in all regions.

For more information -- http://bit.ly/1mkQ2Gi