Join member(s) of the MLA Intellectual Freedom Committee for a discussion on the state of IF in Academic Libraries. "Academic freedom is indispensable to librarians in their roles as teachers and researchers.

Critically, they are trustees of knowledge with the responsibility of ensuring the intellectual freedom of the academic community through the availability of information and ideas, no matter how controversial, so that teachers may freely teach and students may freely learn." -- AAUP Revised Statement on Librarians (2012)