

[Special Needs Committee Update:
Autism Awareness Month Timeline](#)

By Kimberley Alexander

Moms of Black Boys United aims to be a resource for Moms everywhere. This month, we'd like to bring awareness to our boys with Autism. We've created an online toolkit with autism specific resources and tips, not just for Moms with autistic sons but for everyone.

AUTISM AWARENESS MONTH

April 1-30, 2018

WEEKLY THEMES

Week 1: Definitions—What Autism is and isn't

Week 2: How do we know it's Autism?

Week 3: Autism Facts in Black

Week 4: What you can do to support a parent of a child with an Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD) or if you suspect your child has an ASD

ACTIVITIES

- Monday, April 2nd, World Autism Awareness Day campaign begins
- Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays: Resource Graphics
- Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays: 5-minute Facebook live videos with parents of children with Autism
- April 14th: National Call with Dr. Nicole Anthony

Special Needs Committee

M.O.B.B.
MOMS OF BLACK BOYS
UNITED

In addition, Moms of Black Boys United, Inc. brings members of the private Facebook group a speaker series from MOBBs across the country sharing their journey raising their Black boys. No stories are alike as we delve into the joys and pains of being a parent of a child with Autism throughout the month. Whether you're a parent, a loved one, caregiver or just a curious mom, this conversation is for you.

MOBB UNITED SPEAKS ABOUT...

Autism
and Black Boys
in America

Join us for a FaceBook Live series of conversations with Moms sharing their journey with autism

Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays

M.O.B.B.
UNITED

